IMPORTANT NOTICE:

A Rural Address (also known as a 911 address), is a standard form of addressing that will allow emergency services such as police, fire and ambulance to find your residence in case of an emergency. This address is assigned by the County of Vermilion River and shared with East Central 911 for the purpose of emergency dispatch.

Your Rural Address IS NOT your mailing address. Canada Post can confirm your mailing address and postal code.

Authorization

I / We, the Applicant and/or registered owner(s) certify that:

- The information given is complete and is, to the best of my/our knowledge, a true statement of the facts relating to the application for rural address *. Any material falsehood or any omission of a material fact made by the applicant/owner with respect to this application may result in an issued permit becoming null and void.
- I authorize the staff of the County of Vermilion River and other agencies as designated in Section 542 of the Municipal Government Act, R.S.A. 2000, to enter my land for the purpose of conducting a site inspection in connection with my rural address application.
- Where applicable, the individual(s) whose information has been listed under "Applicant" on this application is hereby authorized to make this application on my/our behalf. (In the case of a registered company, documentation of those with signing authority under company seal is required in addition to this form).
- The signs may take upwards of 90 days to install from the date of approval. The timing of installation will depend upon the weather/ground conditions and the number of signs to be installed throughout the entire County.
