The County of Vermilion River

The County of Vermilion River is a vibrant and diversified municipality in northeastern Alberta.

The municipal history of Vermilion River began in 1913 when Local Improvement District No. 451 was formed. In 1964 the Municipal District of Vermilion River No. 71 incorporated as the County of Vermilion River No. 24. In 2006 the Lieutenant Governor changed the name of the County of Vermilion River No. 24 to the County of Vermilion River.

The County has approximately 8,000 residents living on rural farms, and acreages, subdivisions and hamlets. Three villages and one town are located within the municipality. The County of Vermilion River is located 240km east of Edmonton on the Yellowhead Highway, adjacent to the City of Lloydminster and the Province of Saskatchewan.

The North Saskatchewan River borders and cuts through the northeast corner of the County while the Battle River borders the south end. The Vermilion River runs through the north half of the municipality.

The County of Vermilion River has a strong diversified agricultural industry. In addition to the agricultural industry, the County also has an active oil and natural gas industry. To support these major industries, the County of Vermilion River has six business parks along Highway 16 bringing opportunities for business development.

The County of Vermilion River operations are based out of Kitscoty, the geographic center of the municipality. Services provided by the County of Vermilion River are delivered through six departments: Administration, Public Works, Agriculture and Environment, Protective Services Natural Gas and Planning and Community Services.

Council

The County of Vermilion River Council is comprised of seven elected officials. One Councillor is elected from each of the seven electoral divisions, the map of the divisions is included in the guide.

In October at the Organizational Meeting, the Councillor's elect the Reeve and Deputy Reeve. At the Organizational Meeting, a Reeve and a Deputy Reeve are appointed in addition to establishing Council Members on the variety of committees.

The Council of the County of Vermilion River have established the 2025 Mission, Vision and Values as the following:

Mission:

- Providing Services
- Fiscal Responsibility
- Environmental Stewardship
- With a focus on Rural Sustainability

Vision:

A Vibrant Community with Opportunity, Diversity and Sustainability

Values:

- Honesty and Integrity:
 - We act with Honesty and Integrity, not compromising the truth.
- Respect:
 - We will have mutual respect and fair understanding of the wants, needs and expectations of council members, staff and, residents and engage in proactive open, honest and sincere dialogue.
- Accountability:
 - We will take responsibility for our actions, regardless of the outcome, in order to honor obligations and expectations set by residents, peers and ourselves.
- Transparency:
 - We will conduct business with our residents and staff embodying honest and open communication and being upfront and visible about the actions we take, while ensuring those actions are consistent with our values.
- Open Mindedness:
 - We will be receptive to new ideas and embrace differing opinions leading to effective decision making.

What You Should Know About Being a Council Member

An Overview

It is essential to recognize that serving as a Council member demands a significant amount of time and effort. Being elected as a Councillor is a four year commitment to public service, requiring substantial hours to fulfill your duties and responsibilities.

Over the course of your four year term as Councillor, you will need to attend numerous meetings, conferences, conventions, training workshops, and social events. A considerable amount of your time will be spent reading and preparing for meetings to make well-informed decisions. You will also be expected to attend various functions and events, representing the municipality as a dignitary, official, or spokesperson, often during the day, in the evenings, and on weekends.

To help manage these responsibilities, meeting agendas and materials are made available electronically to Council members. You will be expected to use a smartphone, computer, or tablet to receive emails, access Council agendas and correspondence.

Being a Council member becomes a way of life, as you are constantly engaging with the community while representing the municipality. As a public figure, people will frequently approach you to discuss County of Vermilion River matters. You will receive calls during both business hours and after hours, including evenings and weekends. This heavy demand on your time should be carefully considered, as you will need to balance your duties with your personal life and other commitments.

Meetings

The County of Vermilion River Council generally meets twice a month for regular Council meetings. Additionally, they may meet once a month for Policy and Priorities committee meetings. These meetings are typically held during day-time hours.

In addition to regular meetings, Special Council meetings, such as Budget Meetings and Strategic Planning sessions, may be booked as required, typically three or four meetings a year.

Each Council members will also be appointed by Council to serve as members on various committees and as alternate members on other committees. Committee meetings may or may not be held during day-time hours, and there will be evening meetings to attend as well. Some committees meet more often than others.

These meetings can have lengthy agenda packages averaging 200 pages to 600 pages per agenda package that must be reviewed prior to meetings.

Municipal Candidates Training/Information Sessions

Various opportunities may arise for candidates to receive municipal training and information during the election campaign provided through the Government of Alberta. Website links to these resources will be added to the website as they become available.

Orientation Training Sessions

Immediately after the official results of the election have been released all Council members, newly re-elected, will be required to attend mandatory orientation training sessions in the following days after the election. Information will be updated as it becomes available.

Requirements for the 2025 elections require that officials must receive training prior to the organizational meeting of Council. Therefore, training sessions will occur prior to the swearing in ceremony. Information regarding training sessions and dates will be provided as they become available.

How are Councillors compensated?

Councillors receive an annual Basic Honorarium, as per the County's Councillor remuneration policy . This basic Honorarium is to cover expenses related to:

- Attendance at Council meetings and Policy and Priority Committee meetings.
- Attendance at externally appointed committee meetings within the boundaries of the County of Vermilion River.
- Time spent in their respective divisions for evaluations, phone calls, readings, workshops, and functions within the boundary of the County of Vermilion River, its encompassing municipalities, and the City of Lloydminster.

Councillors receive a Per Diem Honorarium for time spent travelling and to attend Council approved meetings, seminars, conferences, workshops, and functions outside of the boundary of the County of Vermilion River, and its encompassing municipalities.

Members of council are also eligible for mileage and reimbursement of expenses incurred for Council business. Refer to current Policy LE 001: Councillor Remuneration and Expenses for further details. This policy is available in the Elections Page and in this guide

The County of Vermilion River provides each Councillor with a taxable Business Use of Home allowance, for telephone, Internet, utilities, and supplies used to conduct County Business.

Council Member Benefits

Council members are given the opportunity to contribute to an Registered Retirement Savings Plan through Canada Life. Additionally, Council members are eligible to participate in County of Vermilion River provided benefit package.

A Few Things to Note

If elected you will be required to follow all pertinent Federal and Provincial, plus additional legislation pertinent to local governments which are contained in the Alberta Municipal Government Act, and other pertinent legislation. This is important to note as municipal leaders have various rules and regulations that must be followed.

Becoming a Candidate

Am I Eligible to be a Candidate?

You are eligible to be nominated as a candidate for a County of Vermilion River Councillor between January 1, 2025, through to Nomination Day Monday, September 22, 2025, you meet the requirements set out in section 21, 22 and section 23 of the Local Authorities Election Act (LAEA), and are not otherwise ineligible or disqualified.

Prospective candidates are strongly encouraged to read and understand Part 5.1 of the Local Authorities Election Act as it pertains to Municipal Election and Finance and Contribution Disclosure requirements.

Candidates may be required to register with the County before they accept campaign contributions and report to the County regarding campaign funding and expenses after the election. Refer to Ministerial Order No. MSD:073/24 makes the Expense Limits Regulation for detailed information as it pertains to the 2025 election.

It is your responsibility to ensure you are not in violation of any conditions of eligibility.

Nominations

How Do I Become Nominated as a Candidate for the Election?

There are several forms candidates need to complete to run in the municipal election, including the Notice of Intent, Candidate Information and the Nomination Papers. These forms are available on the County of Vermilion River Website and in the Candidate Information Guide.

Notice of Intent

An individual who intends to be nominated or has been nominated to run for election in a local jurisdiction as a candidate must give written notice to the local jurisdiction in which the individual intends to be or has been nominated. This form should be completed first, and submitted to the Returning Officer, before starting the nomination paperwork.

Candidate Information

The Candidate must also fill in the Candidate information form and the applicable information.

Nomination Paper and Candidates Acceptance

Nominations must be signed by a minimum of five electors. These electors must be residents of the local jurisdiction on the date they signed the form and must be eligible to vote in the election. The electors who sign the nomination form must also be a resident of the ward for which the candidate is being nominated.

To become nominated as a candidate you must:

- Meet the nomination requirements.
- Have your Nomination Paper signed by at least five electors eligible to vote in this election and who are residents of your division on the day they sign the Nomination Paper and any other form associated with the election in the Nomination Package and the $100.00 deposit as per bylaw No. 98-3.
- Submit the completed Nomination Paper and Candidate's Acceptance forms to the Returning Officer between January 1, 2025 and September 22, 2025, by 12:00 pm and the $100.00 deposit by appointment with the Returning Officer.

It is your responsibility to ensure that you are fully aware of all the nomination requirements and comply with them. It is not the returning officer's responsibility to review the validity of the information contained in your nomination paper.

When and Where Do I Submit My Nomination Paper?

The Nomination Paper and the $100.00 deposit can be submitted to the Returning Officer between January 1, 2025, and September 22, 2025, in person.

Hannah Musterer – Returning Officer

County of Vermilion River
505040 HWY 897, by appointment only.
780-846-2244 extension 3304

Can I withdraw my Nomination Form once filed?

Yes, any candidate, prior Nomination Day can withdraw their nomination paper and therefore their intent to run in the upcoming election. At noon on Nomination Day, September 22, 2025, no more candidates will be accepted, and candidates will have a period of 24 hours to consider an opportunity to withdraw their nomination. Candidates will have this option only if the number of nominations exceeds the required positions available.

Candidates who withdraw their nomination must inform the Returning Officer in writing.

Who Can See My Nomination Forms?

Filed Nomination Papers must be made available to the public. Personal information will be blacked out such as the mailing address of the candidates and candidate's official agent, and personal information in the opinion of the Returning Officer would compromise the personal safety of the candidate. Your nomination information will be posted to the website and available for view upon request.

What legislation should I review?

Candidates should read the Local Authorities Election Act to familiarize themselves with important requirements including:

- Candidate Qualifications
- Eligibility to vote and rules of residence
- Municipal finance and Contribution Disclosure

In addition to the Local Authorities Election Act, candidates should also review the Municipal Government Act for additional information.

Election Day

Election day is Monday, October 20, 2025.

Voting stations will open at 10:00 am and will remain continuously open until 8:00 pm. At 8:00 pm the voting station will close.

Below is the voting station for each division. Voters must vote at the Voting Station in their division.

Division 1: Rivercourse Hall

Division 2: Kitscoty Hall

Division 3: Vermilion Elk's Hall

Division 4: Islay Community Hall

2. POLICY STATEMENT

- 2.a -To establish the standard compensation and benefit rates for services performed and expenses incurred by Councillors in the performance of their duties.

3. OBJECTIVES

- 3.a - To establish compensation guidelines for Councillors receiving payment for their Basic and Per Diem Honorariums, mileage, subsistence, and attendance at approved meetings, seminars, conferences, workshops, and functions within and outside the boundary of the County of Vermilion River, its encompassing municipalities, and the City of Lloydminster.

4. BACKGROUND

- 4.a - This policy is reviewed on a yearly basis to provide for consistent remuneration for Councillors. When Council approves a change of Per Diem and Expense Allowance amounts, the Basic Honorarium for Council members are also adjusted to reflect the change. The Per Diem adjustment for Councillors is aligned with the annual Consumer Price Index Adjustments given to County staff, except when a market adjustment is required.

5. GUIDING PRINCIPLES

5.a - YEARLY ADJUSTMENTS

Schedule 1 of Policy LE001 for the Basic Honorarium and daily Per Diem Honorarium may be amended effective with the annual Consumer Price Index Adjustments applied to the County of Vermilion River Approved Wage Grid.

5.b - BASIC HONORARIUM

Councillors receive an annual Basic Honorarium, as per the County's Payroll Schedule Policy PE002. This basic Honorarium is to cover expenses related to:

- 5.b(i) Attendance at Council meetings and Policy and Priority Committee meetings
- 5.b(ii) Attendance at external appointed committee meetings within the boundaries of the County of Vermilion River, including Lloydminster, as per Schedule 2
- 5.b(iii) Time spent in their respective divisions for evaluations, phone calls, readings, workshops, and functions within the boundary of the County of Vermilion River, its encompassing municipalities, and the City of Lloydminster.

5.c - PER DIEM HONORARIUM

Councillors receive a Per Diem Honorarium as set out in Schedule 1 for time spent travelling and to attend Council approved meetings, seminars, conferences, workshops, and functions outside of the boundary of the County of Vermilion River, its encompassing municipalities, or the City of Lloydminster, determined as per Schedule 3.

5.d - TAXABLE BENEFITS

5.d(i) - Mileage

- 5.d(i)(a) Council receives a maximum amount of $6,200 annually, paid monthly, based on actual mileage reported for travel to perform their required duties within their respective divisions.

5.d(i)(b) Travel to and from Regular Council Meetings, Policy and Priorities Committee meetings, and Special Meetings of Council, approved meetings, seminars, conferences, workshops, and functions will be reimbursed per kilometre at CRA rate.

5.d(i)(c) Mileage expense logs will be submitted to Reeve (or Deputy Reeve) monthly for approval and payment. This includes the log to substantiate basic kilometres.

5.d(ii) - Business use of Home

5.d(ii)(a) The County provides each Councillor with a taxable Business Use of Home allowance of $3,600.00 annually, paid bi-weekly, for telephone, internet, utilities, and supplies used to conduct County Business.

5.d(ii)(b) T2200 forms will be issued to each Councillor yearly to authorize such expenses.

5.e - EXPENSES

Standard travel, registration and accommodation arrangements will be made by County Administration.

5.e(i) Should Councillors have to pay for expenses while attending Council approved meetings, seminars, conferences, workshops, and functions they will be reimbursed.

5.e(ii) Receipts must be submitted with expense voucher.

5.e(iii) Allowable expenses as per Schedule 4.

5.f - BENEFITS

Benefits are provided to Councillors as follows:

5.f(i) RMA Directors and Officers Liability Insurance (covered under RMA General Liability Insurance Policy)

5.f(ii) RMA Council Coverage for Accident and Critical Illness (covered under RMA Accident and Critical Illness Policy)

5.f(iii) RRSP, RSP, and Spousal RRSP administered through Canada Life.

5.f(iv) 9% of gross income (excluding out of boundary expense reimbursements) is contributed by Councillor, matched with a 9% contribution by County. Councillors are permitted to make additional contributions but will not be matched by the County.

5.f(v) The County's contribution amounts are vested after 5 years of continuous service.

5.f(vi) Alberta Municipalities

5.f(vi)(a) Extended health care, Dental, and Health Spending account (premiums are paid 100% by County)

5.f(vi)(b) Basic Life, and Accidental Death and Dismemberment (premiums are paid 85% County and 15% by Councillor)

5.f(vi)(c) Optional Life, Optional Spouse Life, Dependent Life, Optional Critical Illness, Optional Spousal Critical Illness, Optional Child Critical Illness (Optional coverage premiums are paid 100% by Councillor)

5.f(vii) Upon becoming an elected official, Administration will provide Council members with a Salary and Benefits information package.

5.f(viii) Annually, Administration will provide Council members with an updated letter of Salary and Benefits information including Consumer Price Index Adjustments, if applicable, RRSP contributions, upcoming RRSP vested deadlines, and other pertinent information.
